

WEBSITE TERMS OF USE

Last Updated: July 2026

1. ABOUT THESE TERMS

Welcome to the Kenny Solicitors website.

These Terms of Use explain the rules that apply when you access or use our website.

By using our website, you confirm that you accept these Terms of Use. If you do not agree with them, please do not use our website.

These Terms should be read alongside our:

- Privacy Notice;
 - Cookie Policy; and
 - any other legal notices published on our website.

Kenny Solicitors Limited is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA No. 625441).

3. USE OF THIS WEBSITE

You may use this website for lawful purposes only.

You must not:

- use the website in any way that breaches any law or regulation;
- attempt to gain unauthorised access to the website or its systems;
- knowingly introduce viruses, malware or malicious code;

- interfere with the operation or security of the website;
- use automated systems or software to extract data from the website without our prior written permission;
- use the website in a way that may damage our reputation or interfere with other users' enjoyment of it.

We reserve the right to suspend or block access where we reasonably believe these Terms have been breached.

4. WEBSITE CONTENT

The information on this website is provided for general information only.

Although we take reasonable care to ensure that the information is accurate at the time it is published, we do not guarantee that it is complete, accurate or up to date.

Laws, regulations and legal procedures change over time and individual circumstances vary.

Nothing on this website should be relied upon as legal advice.

You should always seek advice tailored to your own circumstances before making decisions based on information published on this website.

5. NO SOLICITOR-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

Accessing this website, contacting us through our website or submitting an enquiry does not create a solicitor-client relationship.

We will only become your solicitors once we have confirmed that we are able to act for you, completed any necessary conflict checks and regulatory requirements, and sent you a Client Care Letter confirming our instructions.

Until then, you should not assume that we are acting on your behalf or that we have accepted responsibility for your matter.

6. ONLINE ENQUIRIES

If you contact us through our website:

- we will use the information you provide to respond to your enquiry;
- we may need to carry out conflict checks before accepting your instructions;
- we cannot guarantee that we will be able to act for you.

You should not send confidential or time-critical information through a website enquiry form unless we have specifically asked you to do so.

If your matter is urgent, please telephone us.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Unless otherwise stated, all content on this website belongs to Kenny Solicitors Limited or is used under licence.

This includes:

- text;
- logos;
- branding;
- graphics;
- photographs;
- documents;
- downloadable resources;
- page layouts;
- design elements.

You may print or download material for your own personal, non-commercial use.

You must not reproduce, modify, distribute, publish or commercially exploit any material without our prior written permission.

8. LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

Our website may include links to third-party websites.

These links are provided for your convenience only.

We have no control over the content of those websites and accept no responsibility for their content, security, availability or privacy practices.

The inclusion of a link does not imply that we endorse the third party or its services.

9. WEBSITE AVAILABILITY

We aim to keep our website available at all times.

However, we do not guarantee uninterrupted access.

We may suspend, withdraw or change the website or any part of it without notice for maintenance, security or operational reasons.

10. CYBER SECURITY

Although we take reasonable steps to maintain the security of our website, we cannot guarantee that it will always be free from bugs, viruses or other harmful material.

You are responsible for ensuring that your own devices have appropriate security protection.

You must not knowingly introduce malicious software or attempt to compromise the security of the website.

11. ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

We may use modern technology, including artificial intelligence ("AI"), to assist in the creation, organisation and maintenance of content published on this website.

All content is reviewed before publication.

Information published on this website is intended for general guidance only and should not be treated as legal advice or as a substitute for taking professional advice on your own circumstances.

12. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability where it would be unlawful to do so.

Subject to that, Kenny Solicitors Limited shall not be liable for any loss arising from:

- reliance upon information published on this website;
- temporary unavailability of the website;
- technical faults beyond our reasonable control;
- third-party websites linked from this website;
- viruses or malicious software introduced by third parties, provided we have taken reasonable steps to protect the website.

Nothing on this website constitutes legal advice or creates a contractual relationship.

13. PRIVACY

Our collection and use of personal information is explained in our Privacy Notice.

Information about our use of cookies is contained in our Cookie Policy.

14. CHANGES TO THESE TERMS

We may update these Terms of Use from time to time.

The latest version will always be published on our website.

Your continued use of the website after changes have been published constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

15. GOVERNING LAW

These Terms of Use are governed by the law of England and Wales.

Any dispute arising from the use of this website shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
